FIRST AID WORKSHOP

First Aid workshop was conducted at H.O., Por and karjan in the month of July and was enthusiastically received by workers, staff and all the Directors. CPR, Artificial respiration and techniques for care of the victim till the arrival of medical aid were the main themes.

Planning is afoot to repeat the workshop in our Chennai and Noida setups and also at various sites.

KNOW YOUR FAMILY MEMBER

Proud son of a farmer father from Meerut in U.P., this 29 year old Jaykishor, from his early age aspired to be in the financial field. In 2005, he acquired his B.Com. degree from Chaudhari Charan Singh University. However not content with his achievements, he went on to be an M.Com. two years later.

Jaykishor joined us in 2008, and is presently the accounts head in our NOIDA office. Tragedy struck his family when he lost his mother very early, but he has now adjusted well with the circumstances, and has an understanding wife Anju who also takes care of his father too.

Travelling around, discovering new places and playing Cricket are his passion. When asked what he foresees for the Company, he says "great times ahead" and goes on to link his own growth to that of the Company.

LAUGH IT OFF

Q: Why do women live longer than men?
A: Shopping never causes heart attacks, but paying the bill does!

ADVENTURE IN THE BONES

Kunal Sevak, Our Design Engineer recently went motor biking with his friends, from Manali to Leh and beyond to Nubra Valley. Seen here with young monks of Ladakh.

HEALTH IS WEALTH

Peaches are a rich source of beta carotene that improves vision health by increasing circulation of blood in the all body parts. We take many toxins daily with our meals that harm the kidneys. Peaches contain high amount of fiber and potassium that reduces kidney related diseases and lessens the risk of ulcer.

This fruit is an ideal diet for dieters. Regular intake of one large peach can help one lose weight. One peach contains only 68 calories surprisingly with no fat. It's also a great source of Vitamin C which is widely used for skin care.

Further, It is a natural remedy to fight against digestive problems caused by anxiety, menopause, headaches, stresses, anxiety, and other similar conditions. Peach can also be used to remove worms from the intestines.
